Archival Recovery Program

pin this week...

John Tyler was the first president to be elevated from Vice President to President due to the death of his predecessor.

Here is a newspaper article that ran on August 16, 1841 in the Philadelphia Public Ledger regarding the murder trial involving Alexander William Holmes.

Alexander William Holmes was pardoned on November 1, 1842, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Holmes was convicted of manslaughter on the high seas. Signed by President John Tyler and Secretary of State Daniel Webster. If you have any information on this pardon, or any other historical documents you feel may belong among the holdings of the National Archives, please do not hesitate to contact us at: MissingDocuments@... or 301-837-3153.

Daniel Webster had a long and distinguished political career spanning both State and Federal level positions. He served as the 14th Secretary of State from March 6, 1841 – July 22, 1850 under Presidents William Henry Harrison and John Tyler. He served once again as the 19th Secretary of State from July 23, 1850–October 24, 1852 under President Millard Fillmore.

Adam Hewing was pardoned on November 16, 1842, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Hewing was convicted of passing counterfeit coin. Signed by President John Tyler and Secretary of State Daniel Webster. If you have any information on this pardon, or any other historical documents you feel may belong among the holdings of the National Archives, please do not hesitate to contact us at: MissingDocuments@... or 301-837-3153.

Frederick S. Fisher was pardoned on July 10, 1841 in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

The screenshot shows the Flickr profile page for 'The British Library'. The header includes the Flickr logo, navigation links for 'Explore' and 'Create', a search bar with the text 'Photos, people, or groups', and buttons for 'Sign In' and 'Sign Up'. The profile banner features a collage of historical and scientific images. The profile name 'The British Library' is prominently displayed with a '+ Follow' button. Below the name, it shows '32.1k Followers • 28 Following'. On the right side of the banner, it indicates '1,023,705 Photos' and 'Joined 2007'. At the bottom of the banner, there are navigation tabs for 'Photostream', 'Albums', 'Favorites', and 'Groups', along with a 'More' dropdown menu.

This block contains a collage of four historical images. The top-left image is a framed portrait of a woman, with text above it mentioning 'English Gilt Frames' and 'Call, if possible, and see our spacious Galleries'. The top-right image is a rural scene with a horse-drawn cart and people, with text above it mentioning 'The symmetry of these forms'. The bottom-left image is a geometric diagram showing a circle with internal lines and points, labeled '125.' and 'the symmetry here described as'. The bottom-right image is a portrait of a man with a beard and a bow tie, with text above it mentioning 'az néhány zászlóalj az ellenségkel szemben mindig' and 'az 1849-iki magyar pénzügyminiszter. — (1870-ben megjelent az'.

up steps and steps and steps, exposed to the sun, and sheltered from the wind. The proprietor had unfortunately just been over to Athens, and had disposed of the best part of his collection ; so we found only some pretty old silver cups and one very good carved cross, with a small bit of the 'true' cross let into wax at the top. This made it very precious, and caused the bargain to be a long one before the difference between the price asked and that
